

LONG WEEKEND this week, due to Easter. Friday, April 3rd, and Monday, April 6th are NON-WORKING DAYS, both for Xetra and EUREX. Many CFD brokers will have some "feed" on holiday days, which is something to ignore. It is up to you, but Germans have LESS holidays than Americans, and personally it means to me to get some rest.

I will be OUT OF TOWN on small VACATION from April 2nd to April 7th.

A calendar for April 2026 with a dark blue background. The days of the week are abbreviated as Su, Mo, Tu, We, Th, Fr, Sa. The date 30 is highlighted in a blue box. The dates 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 are highlighted with red boxes, indicating a period of absence.
